

MEMORIAL SERVICE
A CELEBRATION OF THE LIFE OF SYDNEY JAMES
LOWCOCK, MBE JP (1930-2012)
DBS Headmaster 1961-1983

The Diocesan Boys' School and her extended community mourn the loss of Mr. S.J. Lowcock - An infinitely loving, benevolent, wise, caring and selfless leader.

Mr. Lowcock passed away peacefully at 1:43pm on 26 January 2012 with his family, colleagues and students by his side. May he find eternal peace in the Lord and may the Lord embrace Mr. Lowcock with His loving arms.

Mr. Lowcock's legacy will live on in every DBS boy's heart. All Diocesan boys, past and present, will continue to uphold and perpetuate Mr. Lowcock's undefiled heritage.

A Memorial Service for Mr. S. J. Lowcock will be held at Diocesan Boys' School at 2:00pm (School Hall) on Saturday, 18th February, 2012. The Service is open to all members of the DBS family.

Owing to the limited capacity of the hall, the seating arrangement will be on a first come, first served basis. Kindly refrain from driving as no parking will be allowed.

Free shuttle bus service will be provided to pick up guests to the school on 18th February. Details are as follows :

Pick-Up Points

- 1) Prince Edward MTR Station, Exit B1.Near 1A Bus-stop (See Map 1)
- 2) Kowloon Tong MTR Station, Exit E (See Map 2)

The bus operates from 12:40 p.m to 2:00 p.m. at 20-minute intervals to the Secondary Division.

