University Offers as of 16 April 2012

We are proud to announce that our first year of IB Diploma candidates, the class of 2012, have been given offers from the universities listed below. Our students began receiving offers as early as November from the United Kingdom and United States. This year, IB applicants to local universities also had the opportunity to apply through the University of Hong Kong's "Fast Track" scheme and the Chinese University of Hong Kong's "Advanced Offer" scheme. In many cases, students applied to multiple regions with offers given for a diverse range of courses.
