- There are 3 weekly rehearsals for School Orchestra, String Orchestra and Woodwind Section, and over 170 orchestral members participate. Part-time conductors must be employed to conduct the orchestras so as to reduce the workload of the full time music teachers.

- The part-time conductors identified are professional musicians with experience and knowledge in conducting orchestras. We require these professionals to train our students and prepare them for music competitions and concerts.

- Weekly training & rehearsals from mid-September 05 to late-August 06

Conductors will conduct in the following functions:
- HK Schools Music Festival Feb – March 06,
- Winners’ Prize Concert in April 06,
- School Concerts,
- Hong Kong School Orchestra interflow

1. $700 x 117 = $81,900 per year
2. $700 x 90 = $63,000 per year
3. $700 x 54 = $37,800 per year
4-5. $550 x 40 = $22,000 per year

= $204,700

- Students’ improvement in the performing standard in orchestras and rehearsals demonstrated as a result of the effective training provided by these conductors.

- Students’ music potential and interest being developed by these conductors.

- Students’ active participation and high performing standard in the HK Schools Music Festival and School Concerts.

- Music teachers’ and students’ feedback and assessment on the performance of these conductors.

- The response and feedback from the school authority, parents, students and old boys in the school concerts and other music activities.

- The results of the external music competitions e.g. HK Schools Music Festival
